

Ferragudo

Ferragudo is one of the last typical fishing villages left in the Algarve. Beautiful and unspoilt, this traditional sleepy village provides the relaxation that sets it apart from any other place within the Algarve.

Ferragudo has tastefully designed luxury villas and apartments to rent or buy, Ferragudo provides an environment ideally suited for those wanting comfort, peaceful tranquility, and quality in a Portuguese environment.

With its narrow cobbled streets, the smell of locals cooking sardines on their charcoal grills outside, the women doing the washing on special stone slabs, fishermen fixing their nets, FERRAGUDO is fast becoming one of the best tourist attractions in the Algarve.

Beaches

Ferragudo is renowned for its sandy beach retreats. Secluded, these beaches with their own cliff top walks are a must for all.

- Praia Grande - This is the longest beach in Ferragudo, stretching along the rivers edge and overlooking the marina of Praia da Rocha on the opposite side of the River Arade.

- Praia Pintadinho - This beautiful, secluded cliff edge beach is found just after the Hotel Casabela. Unlike Praia Grande, this is a small beach alongside the sea itself where the local villages fish along the cliff tops.

- Praia Canarais - Another small beautiful, secluded beach, with its high cliff top walks, when the tide is out try and find the beach cave.
